

Research Paper Topics (Extra)

1. The concept of reality TV shows has become a famous trend nowadays. Do you think it reflects reality or does it distort it? Does it have a purpose or is it a waste of time? Does it create values or does it destroy them? Does it encourage sexual/racial stereotype?
2. In the west, Lebanon is mostly depicted as an outmoded country and most foreigners don't even know about its existence. Do you think the image of Lebanon can be enhanced through Lebanese media? What can be done to depict the proper image of Lebanon?
3. Recently, a physically disadvantaged woman complained about the mistreatment she underwent by the MEA airlines. In light of this incident and other similar ones, argue whether or not the Lebanese people and its culture discriminate against the physically disadvantaged.
4. Lately, media has been shedding light on the imminent topic of domestic violence in Lebanon. Present an argument about the issue, discussing what you believe should be done to end domestic violence in Lebanon.
5. Many local TV programs are dealing with the topic of foreign workers in Lebanon and the abuse they undergo. Are they treated fairly? Why do we have so many problematic cases if they are?
6. We are bombarded by images of dead bodies on a daily basis. News coverage no longer draws a line to establish what is appropriate and inappropriate to display. Should media coverage be regulated?
