

CIVILIZATION SEQUENCE 201

SECTIONS 3 & 7: DR. S. KHAIRALLAH

FINAL EXAMINATION: WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24, 1996
AT 2:00 P.M. IN 212 NICELY

TIME: 2 HOURS

INSTRUCTIONS: PART I: Obligatory.
PART II: Answer TWO questions in a well organized essay. Please number the questions. Do not analyze the same text twice.

I. Briefly (one or two sentences) identify five of the following: (10%).

- | | |
|----------|------------|
| 1. polis | 5. fatum |
| 2. logos | 6. sophist |
| 3. nomos | 7. virtù |
| 4. moira | 8. pietàs |

II. Choose two questions (90%).

- Briefly describe happiness according to Socrates, Aristotle, Epicurianism, Stoicism. Then compare and contrast them.
- "Great laws tower above us, reared on high born in the brilliant vault of heaven--
Olympian sky their only father,
Nothing mortal, no man gave them birth...."*
Oedipus the King
 - What are these great laws?
 - Compare critically with the concept of law in Plato, Aristotle, Vergil.
- The search for identity and truth is a major theme in C.S. Yet there is some order outside man's power to command which plays a role in the affairs of men. Critically apply to three texts you have read this semester.

