

CIVILIZATION SEQUENCE 204
FINAL EXAMINATION

AUB.
Time: 2 Hours

June 14, 1999
P. Shebaya

A. Brief answers (30%)

1. Present any one of Popper's critiques (Freud, Marx...) as an example of his "falsification" theory.
2. Choose one topic:
 - a. De Beauvoir's argument for Feminism from a Sartrean Existentialist perspective.
 - OR b. A summary of some main arguments for Feminism as presented by the lecturer. Why are all women not feminists?

[For 1 and 2, feel free to comment from your own point of view if you wish.]

B. Said, Mahfouz and Saleh (30%)

"As best I could I answered their many questions.... in my conceit ~I was afraid he would not understand." Season...pp. 3-4

1. Identify themes in this passage that are common to all three authors.
2. Expand and illustrate the themes by referring to the three texts.
3. Give your own comments on the themes you identified.

C. CHOOSE ONE (40%)

1. Invite any author from C.S. 201, 202 OR 203 for a debate with either Freud or Nietzsche on their views of Man and Society.

- a. Clearly identify the specific topic(s) you wish them to debate.
- b. Give a summary of the opposing views on each topic you choose, as you think they would argue for them.
- c. Give your own opinion on the subject(s) of the debate.

or 2. An overview of C.S.

- a. Which two authors (texts) have most impressed you (1) positively and (2) negatively?
- b. Give clear reasons for your selections.
- c. Mention as many authors/texts as you can in presenting your essay.

