

Civilization Sequence 203
Final Examination
500 Nicely

Sections 10,11 & 23
Time: Three Hours

January 25, 2000
Dr. K. Ferguson

I. Answer two of the following (60%):

- (a) Do the sceptical arguments of the First Meditation provide any serious reason to doubt the truth of our common sense beliefs?
- (b) Is there any interesting sense in which a person can put himself or herself "beyond good and evil"?
- (c) Is act utilitarianism refuted by the bomb example?
- (d) Why does Hume think that the assumption that nature is uniform cannot be justified inductively? Do you agree?
- (e) Are space and time nothing but forms of intuition?

II. Explain clearly and critically assess in detail one of the following (40%):

- (a) Hobbes' and Locke's theories of political obligation.
- (b) Marx's theory of history.

