

1

American University of Beirut
Department of Political Studies and Public Administration

Final Exam

Fall 1995-6
Dr. Michel Nehme
Course Number: 213
Course Title: Survey of International Relations

Treat only one of the below Questions:

1. Explain the most important causes (or correlation) of conflict, cooperation, and peace among nation-states. Feel at liberty to select case studies or examples that you are expected to do and you see fit to support your answer.

2. Explain the motives and incentives among nation-states that encourage them to adopt either a defective and destructive trend or a collaborative and orderly pattern in foreign policy. Support your answer with examples.

Good Luck

