

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY OF BEIRUT

Dr. S. Masri

PSPA 225 - Final Exam

Jan. 30/1996

Choose one of the following questions:

Question No. 1:

- A. Delinquent responsibility of the state in respect of its Legislative, Executive and Judicial acts.
- B. The legal consequences of partial succession regarding: acquired rights, public property and external debts.

Question No. 2:

- A. Explain with examples all the conditions of the ratification, registration, reservation and amendment of international agreements.
- B. The legal conditions and effects pertaining to the state sovereignty over its territorial waters and air space.

Question No.3 :

"One the main objectives of traditional international law was to maintain international order. After the second world war new legal trends were introduced calling for the implementation of international justice as well. Nevertheless, the ultimate objectives of international law remained unchanged: to keep an operational balance between international security and national sovereignty".
Do you agree?
discuss with examples.

Good Luck

SM/sa

