

PSPA 211
Mid-Term Examination
Summer 1999

Answer the following question:

Political systems seek to perform in order to maintain/secure stability and legitimacy. Some countries, however, appear more successful than others in achieving their objectives. Examine this statement in a comprehensive essay in which you examine the factors that contribute to, or hinder, sound political performance.