Final Exam

Fall 1995-6
Dr. Michel Nehme
Course Number: 233
Course Title: International Organizations

Treat only one of the below Questions:

1. Regardless of the philosophical and theoretical orientation of some scholars, the fact is that international relations could not be studied if we bypass the main stream of international organizations and transnational movements. To what extent do you think that the United Nations has played a major role in supporting this claim?
2. Among the most contributions of international organizations to the security and well-being of the world community is the provision of channels and programs for dealing with short and long-range problems. Explain the role and function of the United Nations in respect to such endeavor.

Good Luck
