Course Number: PSPA 233
Course title: International Organizations
Prof.: M. Nehme

Treat only one of the following questions

1. Assess the limitations and institutional constraints of the United Nations on the one hand, and the success and failure of this international organization in promoting economic and social welfare, and managing global resources.
2. When comparing regional organizations with universal ones, which do you consider were more likely to bring about justice, stability, and control of the instruments of war. Be brief and provide examples.

Good Luck
