

BORNEDAL, FINAL EXAM, CS 208F.

Student ID: _____

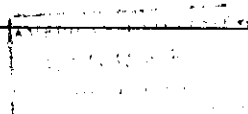

Read first: You have 1 hour and 45 minutes. Handing in your paper after the exam is stopped will automatically apply 5 minus points to your grade. Books are permitted, but not notes. Sharing of books is not allowed and any talk during the exam is not allowed. Plagiarism results in failure of quiz, and will be reported.

QUESTION 1: Describe the difference between Nietzsche's passive and active Nihilism!

QUESTION 2: According to Freud, a child is born so-called 'polymorph perverse'; What does he mean by that, and what happens in normal human development to this 'polymorph perversity'?

QUESTION 3: What is the difference between signifier and signified in Saussure; and what does it mean that the relationship between them is 'arbitrary'?

QUESTION 4: What is a so-called 'mytheme' in Levi-Strauss, and how does one discover/recognize a mytheme in a myth, a narrative, or a film?

ESSAY: Write an essay including the following questions: What does it imply that labor-power is a commodity in Capitalism? What is the price of labor-power as commodity? Explain Marx's formula

$365A + 32B + 4C$, etc.

365

What is the difference between exchange-value and use-value regarding labor-power? How is labor-power exploited in order to produce surplus-value? What does Marx explain by the following three models, A—B—C & A—B—C & A—B—C? What does the ratio between BC and AB explain?